

With 66 entries for the ARB Town and Country Tyres Stackpoole 400 it is sure to be a classic weekend of off road racing.

Sportzprint are again on board with their second completion for the 2018 racing season and with $100 worth of merchandise up for grabs, it's worth the time to study the form guide and have an informed guess at the top three podium come the end of racing on Sunday.

Sportzprint's founder Anthony Telfer added "we're going to run a competition this year for every event that Sportzprint is at producing merchandise. If you pick the first three place getters at an event, then you go into the draw to win $100 worth of event merchandise. It's that simple."

"I've made a post on the Sportzprint Facebook page and all you need to do is go and like the page, share the link and list who you think will be first, second and third outright and use the #sportzprint #offroadracing #stackpoole #arb & #tct hashtags"

Sportzprint are also trialling a mobile hotspot to boost signal for internet, mobile phone and their EFPOS facility. Drop into the Sportzprint merchandise trailer and check out their event and championship merchandise and make use of the free hotspot.

A couple of rules for the competition

- 1 Any edited posts will be deemed ineligible, so if you make a mistake, do it again.
- 2 Any posts without the hashtags - #sportzprint #offroadracing #stackpoole #arb & #tct – will not be accepted and will be deleted.
- 3 Correct entries will get a LIKE
- 4 don't forget to share & like the Sportzprint page

Competitor list can be found here .